

Youth Culture Specialist, Paul Robertson, Presents

UNDERSTANDING A GENERATION WHO ADORE THEMSELVES

There is no doubt that media is the new mentor for our children. The messages it brings shapes their values, beliefs, and attitudes. The loudest message they hear today is "it's all about me." Our youth culture has fallen in love with Me, Myself, and I. This seminar looks at the growing trend of narcissism – its implications for our kids and how we can help them cope with the growing pressure to focus only on themselves.

Paul is the Youth Culture Specialist for Youth Unlimited (Toronto YFC). He has been working with youth and parents for 35 years and has spoken extensively throughout Canada and the USA. Having raised four sons, he understands that today's parents are searching for answers to urgent questions on keeping the family strong.
