

Youth Culture Specialist, Paul Robertson, Presents

UNDERSTANDING THE PUSH & PULL OF PEER PRESSURE

Like any warm-blooded species, young people have an innate orienting instinct which needs to be developed by loving parents and adults and not passionate peers. This seminar looks at the negative influence of peer pressure and the positive response strategies that need to be implemented.

Paul is the Youth Culture Specialist for Youth Unlimited (Toronto YFC). He has been working with youth and parents for 33 years and has spoken extensively throughout Canada and the USA. Having raised four sons, he understands that today's parents are searching for answers to urgent questions on keeping the family strong.
